French Hospital Medical Center Foundation’s Golf and Tennis Tournament raises $68,000

Surpasses previously set record for amount raised for this event

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA – June 27, 2016 – The French Hospital Medical Center (FHMC) Foundation is proud to announce more than $68,000 was raised during The French Cup, its tenth annual charity Golf and Tennis Tournament. Held on June 13, 2016 at the San Luis Obispo Country Club, this year’s event broke previous French Cup records with the amount raised. Funds from the event will support the new Copeland Health Education Pavilion.

The event featured a golf tournament, a women’s doubles tennis tournament and an awards reception. In total, this year’s tournament included 140 golfers and 22 tennis players. Mustangs Sports Properties was the Presenting Sponsor for the 2016 French Cup. Other major sponsors included Heritage Oaks Bank, J.W. Design & Construction and French Hospital Medical Center Medical Staff. The Restaurants on the Green included Ciopinot Seafood Grille, Olde Port Inn, The Manse on Marsh and Old San Luis BBQ.

The winning golf foursome from Ernie Ball, which included golfers Brian Ball, Scott Ball, Paul D’Ambra, and Ricky Griswold, took home the highly acclaimed French Cup medals created by Malcolm DeMille, designer of the PGA Tour trophy.

Ingrid Troesch and Tracy Ronca were the winners of the women’s doubles tennis tournament.

Since its inception in 2007, The French Cup has generated more than $491,000 for FHMC’s programs and services. The FHMC Foundation hosts a number of fundraising activities such as the annual golf tournament to support patient services and hospital programs. Currently, FHMC is enhancing its facilities and technology to meet community health care needs.
